

Student Excusal Form for Official University Event

Washington State University's Annual Veteran's Symposium is scheduled for 9 November 2022. This is a system-wide symposium. The following student has asked for formal excusal to participate in the symposium and the student understands that he/she/they must request permission prior to the event. The symposium will consist of a morning guest speaker for overcoming challenges, and how to present themselves professionally on social media. There will be a networking lunch with veteran-owned business owners and the afternoon roundtable will consist of an abbreviated DEI training on the challenges Veteran and Military Affiliated students face.

This event takes place at the Vancouver campus this year, so the student will be absent November 8th and 9th. Please excuse the following student so that he/she/they may participate in the symposium.

Thank you for allowing the student time to participate in the system-wide endeavor. We appreciate your support. We understand that in all instances, it is the student's responsibility to make up all the work missed. Problem cases should follow the Academic Complaint Procedures, Rule 104. This activity falls under the Guidelines for Class Absences, approved by the Faculty Senate on November 21, 1985.

The Veterans and Military Affiliated Task Force appreciates your support and understanding.
